2. Application of Conditions

2.1 These Conditions shall apply to all legal relationships between ABP and any Customer whether in respect of contract, bailment, licence or tort.

2.2 These Conditions cannot be varied other than as agreed in writing between ABP and the Customer (or its Representative).

2.3 The acceptance by the Customer of these Conditions, if not express, will be implied from any one or more of the following:

- (a) request of any Services or ABP Plant to be provided by ABP;
- (b) delivery of Goods onto the Port or into the custody of ABP;

- (c) entry of any Vessel into the harbour jurisdiction of ABP;
- (d) entry of any Customer Transport onto the Port;
- (e) embarking or disembarking of any Passengers or other individuals onto the Port;
- (f) submission of any documentation to ABP in relation to a Vessel, Customer Transport, Goods or Passengers whether via the ABP Notify Website or otherwise;
- (g) use of any facility or ABP Plant at the Port by the Customer or its Representative.

3. Warranty of Authority by Customer

- 3.1 The Customer warrants to ABP that the Customer is either the owner or the authorised agent of the owner of the Goods and/or Vessel and further warrants that the Customer accepts these Conditions not only for itself but also as duly authorised agent for and on behalf of every other Person interested in the Goods and/or Vessel. Any finance company, lessor or other Person having or claiming to have title to or an interest in such Goods and/or Vessel are advised that unless ABP is notified in writing of their title or interest in the particular Goods prior to the commencement of any relationship between ABP and the Customer, these Conditions shall be deemed to have been accepted with the authority of such Persons and such Persons' rights over and in respect of the Goods and/or Vessel shall be subordinated to the rights of ABP under these Conditions.
- 3.2 The Customer shall reimburse ABP in full and on demand for all costs and expenses suffered or incurred by ABP arising out of or in connection with any lack of authority or title on the part of the Customer as referred to in Condition 3.1.

4. Services

- 4.1 ABP will only provide Cargo Services or Passenger Services in connection with Cargo or Passengers by prior written agreement with the Customer, either at the time each service is required or in accordance with any contractual arrangement to provide such services over a period of time.
- 4.2 ABP will carry out any Cargo Services or Passengers Services with reasonable skill and care.
- 4.3 Where ABP provides ships agency services in relation to the Port, ABP will do so only by prior written agreement with the Customer in respect of a particular Vessel, and the Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for any Losses suffered or incurred by ABP as a result of acting within the scope of its authority as agent for or on behalf of the Customer.
- 4.4 ABP reserves the right to decline to carry out any Services until ABP is satisfied that any official formalities are complied with including authorisation from the Vessel owner or agents, proof of compliance with all customs and other official formalities and that any Necessary Consents have been obtained.
- 4.5 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, ABP has complete freedom in respect of the way in which any Services are carried out. In the event that the Customer gives ABP any specific instructions, ABP reserves the right to deviate from the Customer's instructions (whether or not accepted by ABP) in any respect, where it is reasonable for ABP to do so, and the Customer shall reimburse ABP in full and on demand for all costs and expenses suffered or incurred by ABP in relation to such deviation.

5. Information in relation to Cargo, Passengers and Vessels

- 5.1 The Customer shall, or shall procure that, in relation to any Cargo, Containers, Passengers or Vessel which the Customer delivers or causes to be at the Port, the following information is provided in writing to ABP:
- (a) the total number of Passengers which are to (i) embark or disembark the Vessel at the Port; and (ii) stay on board the Vessel in transit while at the Port, together with a copy of the manifest in relation to the Vessel and Passengers and any such other supporting information as ABP may reasonably require;
  - (b) full particulars of the Cargo/Containers (including weight, volume and a sufficient description to identify the Cargo/Containers) prior to (i) the loading of the Cargo/Containers to Vessel at the Port; (ii) prior to the discharge of Cargo/Container from the Vessel at the Port; and (iii) as otherwise may be required by ABP including where the Customer is storing Cargo / Containers at the Port before or after its import/export, together with a copy of the manifest or bill of lading and/or any other such supporting information as ABP may reasonably require in relation to such Cargo/Containers;
  - (c) where ABP is providing Cargo Services:
    - (i) information as is sufficient to handle the Goods safely and in full compliance with Applicable Laws and Good Industry Practice;
    - (ii) details of any hazards in connection with the Goods;
    - (iii) any special precautions or instructions regarding the nature, weight or condition of the Goods and how it should be handled, sorted, loaded, unloaded or stored which are necessary or desirable for ABP to perform the Cargo Services and/or comply with its legal duties and Good Industry Practice (including in relation to health and safety and the Environment) in doing so; as soon as reasonably practicable before ABP commences any Cargo Services in relation to such Goods;
  - (d) where ABP is providing Passenger Services:
    - (i) information as is sufficient for ABP to provide the Passenger Services safely and in full compliance with Applicable Laws and Good Industry Practice;
    - (ii) any special precautions or instructions regarding the Passenger Services which are necessary or desirable for ABP to perform the Passenger Services and/or comply with its legal duties and Good Industry Practice (including in relation to health and safety and the Environment) in doing so; as soon as reasonably practicable before ABP commences any Passenger Services in relation to the Passengers.
- 5.2 The Customer agrees that ABP has the right to share any information provided to ABP under this Condition 5 to any Person ABP deems necessary.
- 5.3 The Customer shall be deemed to warrant the accuracy of all descriptions, values and other information and particulars provided to ABP pursuant to Condition 5.1 or otherwise in relation to the Goods, Passengers or Vessel. The Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for any Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in relation to any inaccuracy or omission in any information provided to ABP.

- 5.4 ABP may, but shall not be obliged to, verify the weight or volume of Cargo or Containers by undertaking its own measurements and in the absence of manifest error such measurements shall be deemed to be conclusive.
- 6. Condition of Goods & Vessel
- 6.1 The Customer warrants that any Goods which the Customer delivers to or causes to be at the Port:
- (a) will not contaminate or cause danger, injury, pollution or damage to the Environment, any person or any property;
  - (b) are not overheated, infested, verminous, rotten or subject to fungal attack or liable to become so while on any quayside or hardstanding area or in any building on the Port;
  - (c) require for their safekeeping no special protection (other than as may be agreed in writing between ABP and Customer) arising from vulnerability to heat, cold, natural or artificial light, moisture, salt, pilferage, vandalism or proximity to other Goods or from their inflammability or other hazardous nature;
  - (d) contain no controlled drugs (unless the Customer is licensed or otherwise lawfully authorised in respect of such controlled drugs), contraband, pornographic or other illegal matter;
  - (e) are properly and sufficiently packed to ensure the safety of the Goods and to allow mechanical handling without damage or danger;
  - (f) are properly and sufficiently marked, documented and labelled for all shipping, handling, dispatch, customs and similar purposes;
  - (g) are properly marked with warnings as to the hazardous nature of any contents and the precautions to be taken in handling the same and with such warnings as may be necessary for ensuring the safety and health of all persons likely to handle or come into contact with the Goods or their contents in the event of the escape of anything injurious from the Goods;
  - (h) are fully insured at all times including during the provision of any Services and that such insurance covers theft of, or loss or damage to the Goods arising during their presence at the Port or as a result of the provision of any Services;
  - (i) are in a fit and proper condition to be handled or otherwise dealt with by ABP or any ABP Party and ABP Plant during the provision of any Services.
- 6.2 The Customer warrants that:
- (a) any Vessel which it brings into or causes to be within the Port is:
    - (i) seaworthy and complies with all Applicable Laws and any Terminal Regulations (where relevant) that it will remain seaworthy and compliant with Applicable Laws and Terminal Regulations (where relevant) throughout the period it is at the Port; and
    - (ii) covered by Protection and Indemnity insurance with reputable insurers in respect of third party liability risks (including cargo damage, pollution and wreck removal) and for levels of cover as would normally be taken out by a prudent operator of a comparable Vessel in similar trades;
  - (b) any Customer Transport seeking to enter the Port is road or rail worthy (as applicable) and that it complies with
- and will remain road or rail worthy (as applicable) and be operated in accordance with all Applicable Laws throughout the period it is at the Port;
- 6.3 Where ABP incurs or suffers any Losses due to:
- (a) the Customer's breach of any of the warranties set out in Conditions 6.1 and 6.2; or
  - (b) taking any step which ABP considers to have been reasonably required to remedy a breach of any of the warranties set out in this Condition 6 or to comply with the lawful requirements of any Competent Authority in respect to the Goods,
- then the Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for such Losses.
- 6.4 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, if ABP reasonably suspects that a breach of any warranty under this Condition 6 has been, or might be, committed, ABP has the right to refuse to accept any Goods onto its Port, and if Goods have already been accepted, ABP reserves the right to require their prompt removal. In such circumstances, the Customer shall not be entitled to any compensation from ABP other than a refund of Charges pre-paid by the Customer in respect of the Goods less any Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in connection with the Goods (including Charges owing up to the date of the removal of the Goods and any additional handling and operational costs incurred by ABP).
- 7. Prompt Shipping and Removal of Goods
- 7.1 Unless otherwise agreed by ABP in writing, the Customer shall ensure that all Goods:
- (a) delivered to the Port for loading to a Vessel are loaded to Vessel as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case within twenty four (24) hours of the date of delivery of the Goods to the Port;
  - (b) discharged from a Vessel at the Port are removed from the Port as soon as reasonably practicable and in any case within twenty four (24) hours of completion of discharge of the Vessel.
- 7.2 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy and except as otherwise agreed by ABP in writing, any Goods remaining on the Port beyond the time period specified in Condition 7.1 (or such other time period as may be agreed in writing by ABP) shall (i) incur Charges for rent in accordance with the Port Tariff; and (ii) may be dealt with in accordance with these Conditions including under Condition 8, 9, 15, 18, 19.
- 8. Destruction or Disposal of Harmful Goods
- 8.1 If any Goods on the Port are, or become, noxious, hazardous, inflammable, explosive or in any way dangerous or otherwise likely to cause damage (including Goods which are infectious, diseased or verminous or likely to harbour or encourage infection or disease or vermin or other pests) whether alone or in combination with other Goods and whether or not by reason of the act or omission of any Person, ABP or any ABP Party in whose custody the Goods are then in, shall be at liberty to destroy or otherwise deal with the Goods as in their discretion may seem desirable for the purpose of rendering the Goods harmless.
- 8.2 Where this Condition applies the Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand against all Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in connection with the fact or matter referred to in Condition 8.1.

9. Dangerous Substances &amp; Hazardous Materials	11.4 ABP has absolute discretion in the allocation of berths, rail terminal capacity, ABP Plant, labour and covered and uncovered storage space.
9.1 Dangerous Substances and Hazardous Materials of an inflammable, explosive, dangerous or offensive nature shall not be brought into or dealt with at the Port unless and until the Customer has procured that detailed information (including the nature, quality and quantity) regarding such Dangerous Substances or Hazardous Materials has been provided to the Harbour Master for the Port (whether by the ABP Notify Website or otherwise) and the Harbour Master has confirmed to the Customer in writing that it will accept such Dangerous Substances or Hazardous Materials. The acceptance of such Dangerous Substances or Hazardous Materials by ABP shall be subject to such terms as ABP may stipulate.	11.5 Any arrival and departure dates or times provided by ABP are estimates only. Except to the extent that ABP has expressly agreed in writing to any special arrangements, ABP accepts no responsibility or liability with regard to any failure to adhere to agreed arrival or departure dates or times of Goods, Vessels or Customer Transport.
9.2 The Customer will be responsible for ensuring that the tonnage of ammonium nitrate (where applicable) stored at the Port does not exceed that permitted under the Dangerous Substances Regulations or any other Applicable Laws.	11.6 The Customer shall ensure that a Vessel and any Customer Transport arrives at and is handled and departs in conformity with the requirements and regulations of ABP and its Harbour Master, and the lawful requirements of any other Competent Authority.
9.3 The Customer will be responsible for removing any Hazardous Materials or Dangerous Substances, including, any radioactive substances or materials, from the Port if reasonably requested to do so by ABP and if the Customer fails to remove any such substances or materials to the reasonable satisfaction of ABP then ABP reserves the right (but shall not be obliged) to remove and dispose of them itself. The Customer shall reimburse ABP in full and on demand for all costs and expenses suffered or incurred by ABP in undertaking any removal and disposal of such substances or materials.	11.7 Any Vessel which has completed discharge or loading at a berth may only be permitted to remain in the Port with the Harbour Master's permission and may be required to move to another berth at the Port if directed. Berth rent and any other applicable port Charges (such as pilotage, berthing and mooring charges) shall apply in accordance with the Port Tariff.
10. Explosives	11.8 Where ABP has issued Terminal Regulations in relation to a terminal at the Port, such Terminal Regulations shall apply to the use of that Terminal and the Customer shall comply with such Terminal Regulations.
10.1 Without prejudice to Condition 9 (Dangerous Substances & Hazardous Materials), where ABP undertakes to handle explosives (defined as substances and articles listed under Class 1 of the International Maritime Dangerous Goods Code as published by the International Maritime Organisation) or consents to the handling of explosives on its Port by others, the Customer shall:	11.9 Where the Customer uses any Person (other than ABP) to carry out services in the Port (" Third Party Service Provider "), it will satisfy itself as to the competence of such Third Party Service Provider and, notwithstanding the existence of any license given by ABP to any Third Party Service Provider in respect of its operation at the Port, no warranty is given by ABP as to the competence of any Third Party Service Provider and ABP will not be liable for the consequences of any act, failure, omission or breach of statutory duty, whether negligent or otherwise, of any Third Party Service Provider appointed by the Customer.
(a) indemnify ABP in full and on demand against all Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in respect of any death, personal injury or damage to property by reason or in consequence of or in connection with the handling of the explosives (whether or not caused by the negligence or default of ABP or any ABP Party); and	12. Hours of Work The normal hours of work vary depending on the Port, terminal, operation and Services. Further information can be provided on request at the relevant Port.
(b) provide a letter of confirmation from the Customer's insurance company that the indemnity referred to in Condition 10.1(a) is underwritten by a policy of insurance, quoting the policy number and the period of insurance.	13. Payment of Charges
11. Vessels, Customer Transport, Third Party Service Providers	13.1 The Customer shall be responsible for paying the Charges in accordance with these Conditions. The Charges shall be those published in the Port Tariff for the Port or as otherwise advised by ABP.
11.1 ABP is not obliged to admit Customer Transport to its Port or to allow Vessels to berth at the Port except by prior arrangement.	13.2 Unless stated otherwise, all Charges are exclusive of VAT.
11.2 Vessels mooring and arriving at the Port and Customer Transport arriving at the Port will be dealt with in an order determined by ABP at its sole discretion.	13.3 Any quotations by ABP are on the basis of immediate acceptance and are subject to the right of withdrawal or revision at any time. ABP has the right to correct any errors in any quotation given.
11.3 ABP shall not be responsible for the acts or omissions of berthing masters or boatmen nor for any Losses suffered or damage caused to any Person, Vessel or Goods in connection with any berthing, mooring, un-berthing or un-mooring operation except to the extent that ABP has expressly agreed in writing to supply berthing masters and/or boatmen in relation to a Vessel in which case these Conditions shall apply to the provision of such Services.	13.4 All Charges are payable in accordance with ABP's standard terms of payments as set out in Condition 13.5.
	13.5 ABP's standard terms of payment are that all Charges are payable on demand and before the Vessel departs the Port. No Vessel will normally be permitted to leave the docks until all Charges have been paid and agreement has been obtained from the Port Manager, Harbour Master or an authorised ABP representative.
	13.6 ABP may agree to allow the Customer a credit account in relation to certain Charges, subject to any special conditions which may from time to time be applicable. In the event of such credit agreement and unless otherwise agreed in writing by ABP:

(a)	any credit arrangement shall not include ships dues which shall be payable in advance or on demand and prior to the Vessel leaving the Port;
(b)	all Charges which are subject to such credit arrangement shall be paid within 28 days of the invoice date (unless some other time period is specified by ABP);
(c)	any credit arrangement agreed with the Customer shall at all times be subject to Condition 13.7.
13.7	Notwithstanding any credit arrangement in place between ABP and the Customer in accordance with Condition 13.6 or any other provision in these Conditions:
(a)	if ABP (acting reasonably) considers that there is a risk that any Charges levied or any future Charges to be levied may not be paid by the relevant due date, ABP has the right, upon giving the Customer notice, to immediately withdraw any credit arrangement agreed and to require payment in advance (where applicable) or immediate payment on demand of the whole or part of its Charges;	(ii) ABP (acting reasonably) considers that there is a risk that any Charges levied or any future Charges to be levied may not be paid by the relevant due date;
(b)	ABP reserves all its statutory rights in relation to the recovery of amounts owing to it, including rights to distrain and arrest vessels for non-payment of amounts owing to ABP; and	(iii) the Customer is in material, continued or persistent breach of any of its obligations under these Conditions and the breach is not capable of being remedied or the breach can be remedied but the Customer has failed to remedy the breach on written notice from ABP requiring it to be remedied;
(c)	ABP may, subject to any statutory requirements to the contrary, at any time demand prepayment of the whole or part of its Charges.	(iv) ABP reasonably considers it unsafe or unsuitable in the circumstances; or
13.8	Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, ABP reserves the right to charge interest at the rate of 8% p.a. above the base rate of The Bank of England on all amounts overdue and such interest shall accrue on a daily basis until payment is received.	(v) the Customer suffers an Insolvency Event,
13.9	No undertaking by ABP to collect from a consignee or any other Person any sum payable to the Customer and no demand by ABP on such Person shall constitute a waiver or release by ABP of any rights against the Customer.	and in such circumstances ABP shall not be liable for any Losses suffered or incurred by the Customer arising directly or indirectly from ABP's failure or delay to perform any of its obligations.
13.10	All Charges due and owing to ABP shall be paid without set-off, withholding or deduction of any kind.	14.2 In the event of any exercise of ABP's rights pursuant to this Condition 14 and without prejudice to any other right or remedy, all sums due to ABP by the Customer (including for any Services carried out up to the point of suspension or cancellation) shall become immediately due and payable on demand. For the avoidance of doubt, applicable Charges (such as rent for Goods stored at the Port) will continue to accrue during such period.
14. Suspension / Cancellation / Right of Refusal		15. General Lien with Power of Sale
14.1	Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, ABP reserves the right:	15.1 Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, ABP may exercise upon all Goods and documents relating to Goods in its possession, a general lien, not only for any Charges due in relation to such Goods, but also for all monies owing by the owners to ABP on any account including any claim by ABP for Losses, (together being the "Debt"). Applicable Charges (such as rent for Goods stored at the Port) will continue to accrue in respect of any Goods detained under lien. In the event of any Debt not being fully paid in cleared funds within fourteen (14) days of the notice of the exercise of any such lien, ABP may sell the Goods and apply the proceeds towards the satisfaction of the Debt on whatsoever account owing and also all Charges arising during the exercise of any such lien and the provisions of Conditions 19.1(b)(i) and (ii) and 19.2 shall apply to the sale of the Goods.
(a)	not to permit a Vessel to a berth or discharge or load Goods or embark or disembark Passengers at the Port;	15.2 If the Customer has sold or sells the Goods which are the subject of the lien, ABP may, at its option, accept the proceeds of such sale or some interest or charge in or over such proceeds in substitution of the lien as a condition for releasing the Goods. If storing Goods subject to a lien, the limitations and exclusions on ABP's liability as set out in these Conditions shall apply.
(b)	not to permit Customer Transport to enter the Port and/or to load or unload any Goods at the Port;	16. Hire or use of ABP Plant
(c)	not to release any Goods and/or accept any new Goods onto the Port; and/or	16.1 Any hire or use of any ABP Plant shall be governed by these Conditions including the terms of this Condition 16 and Conditions 17, 22 and 23.
(d)	to decline to provide, suspend or cancel the performance of all or any part of any Services;	16.2 All hire or use of ABP Plant shall be subject to availability and ABP does not guarantee the availability of any ABP Plant at any specified time or accept any liability in relation to ABP Plant not being available in time. ABP reserves the right to limit the hire period for any ABP Plant.
	in the event that any of the following apply:	16.3 Unless otherwise advised by ABP an ABP Plant hire order form should be completed and submitted (in accordance with the directions on the ABP order form) to apply for the hire or use of ABP Plant.
(i)	the Customer has failed to pay any amount owing to ABP by the due date in respect of any of the ports owned by ABP irrespective of whether it is the same as the current Port;

- 16.3 ABP reserves the right to require that ABP Plant such as cranes are operated by an ABP supplied operator (at the Customer's cost) for the Customer's operation in which case the Customer must not permit any other person to operate the ABP Plant without ABP's prior written consent. Where the operator is:
- (a) provided by ABP, ABP shall provide an operator who is competent and appropriately trained in operating the ABP Plant.
  - (b) provided by the Customer (subject to this Condition 16.3), the Customer shall provide an operator who is (i) competent and appropriately trained in operating the ABP Plant; (ii) who has signed the ABP authority in regard to ABP's drug and alcohol testing policy; and (iii) whose details have been provided to ABP in advance.
- 16.4 The Customer agrees that for any Customer operation involving the hire or use of the ABP Plant: :
- (a) the operator of the ABP Plant (whether supplied by ABP or the Customer) shall:
    - (i) be under the direction and control of the Customer
    - (ii) for all purposes in connection with his/her employment in the working of the ABP Plant be regarded as a servant or agent of the Customer; and
  - (c) the Customer shall be fully responsible for all claims arising in connection with the operation of the ABP Plant by the operator (whether supplied by ABP or the Customer) whether arising from the operator's negligence or otherwise (Claims) and shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for any Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in relation to any such Claims.
- 16.4 The Customer shall, in respect of any ABP Plant which it hires or uses:
- (a) ensure that the ABP Plant is suitable for the proposed use and is not used for any unlawful purpose;
  - (b) strictly follow any instructions and restrictions given by ABP including any instructions given to ensure that (where relevant) ABP Plant is not taken onto hardstanding where it may be in excess of the load bearing capacity for that hardstanding;
  - (d) ensure that the ABP Plant is not misused or mishandled (including not loading it in excess of its maximum load capacity (where relevant)), is used only for the purposes for which it is designed, is operated in a proper and lawful manner and in accordance with any instructions given by ABP;
  - (e) without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 17, when using ABP Plant to undertake lifting operations involving lifting equipment, comply with the Lifting Operations and Lifting Equipment Regulations 1998 (including carrying out any pre checks of equipment and appointing a competent person to manage the operation);
  - (f) not part with possession of the ABP Plant to any third party at any time or remove it from the Port (unless otherwise agreed in writing by ABP);
  - (g) keep the ABP Plant in a clean condition, and take all reasonable precautions to safeguard it (including the use of locks where provided), not make any alterations to the ABP Plant or remove any existing component(s) from the ABP Plant without the prior written consent of ABP, and shall return it to ABP at the end of the hire in the same condition as it was at the start of the hire (fair wear and tear excepted).
- (h) unless otherwise advised by ABP, where relevant for the particular ABP Plant, supply the Customer's own tested slings and other lifting gear which are in good condition and compliant with Applicable Laws;
- (j) notify ABP as soon as possible of any breakdown, damage or fault in relation to the ABP Plant or in the event that the ABP Plant is involved in any accident resulting in injury to persons or damage to property;
- 16.5 The Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for any Losses incurred or suffered by ABP which arises out of or in connection with the possession or use of the ABP Plant by the Customer or its Representatives.
- 16.6 The Customer acknowledges that any data logger systems on ABP Plant which are mobile cranes are indicative only and that ABP strongly recommends that a certificated weighbridge is used to accurately check weights of Goods loaded or unloaded. ABP accepts no liability in connection with any the inaccuracy of data provided by the data logger systems.
- 16.7 ABP reserves the right to notify the Customer of any additional special conditions which apply to the hire of any particular ABP Plant and the Customer agrees to comply with such conditions.
- 17. Safety, Environment & Compliance with Law
- 17.1 The Customer shall:
- (a) at all times comply with ABP Regulations and Applicable Laws relevant to its use of and activities at the Port;
  - (b) carry out risk assessments of its activities at the Port to the full extent required by Good Industry Practice and Applicable laws, and will ensure that appropriate action is taken on the basis of those risk assessments;
  - (c) ensure that all Persons engaged by the Customer in any of its activities at the Port (including its Representatives) are appropriately trained and qualified for the work in which they are engaged, in accordance with Good Industry Practice;
  - (d) procure that any Representatives of other persons whom the Customer invites onto the Port conduct their respective activities in compliance with the obligations in this Condition 17;
  - (e) where relevant apply for and secure all Necessary Consents necessary in connection with any activity carried out by it at the Port, comply with all conditions and limitations imposed by any such Necessary Consent and upon request provide a copy of any such Necessary Consent to ABP and notify ABP as soon as practicable in the event that there is any material variation to any such Necessary Consent or if the Customer ceases to hold such Necessary Consent;
  - (f) conduct its activities at the Port at all times in such a way as to minimise any nuisance or disturbance to ABP any other Person at the Port, any other Vessel using the Port and the owners and occupiers of other land within or adjacent to the Port;
  - (g) immediately inform a representative of ABP in the event:
    - (i) that it becomes aware of any occurrence, incident, circumstance or unsafe practice which may affect the safe or efficient operation of the Port or which may present a danger or give rise to a risk to health, security, order, safety, or property or the Environment at the Port;

	(ii) of any accident or incident which would be reportable under the Reporting of Incidents, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations (RIDDOR).	18.1	Subject to any written agreement with ABP to the contrary:
17.2	Without prejudice to Conditions 17.1(a) and (b), the Customer will conduct its activities at the Port at all times in such a way as to:	(a)	the Customer will make proper and adequate arrangements for the removal from the Port and disposal of all:
(a)	prevent any escape of Goods or any other substance or matter (in whatever form and whether alone or in combination with any other substance) within the possession or control of the Customer from the Berth or from any other area of the Port or from any Vessel or other means of transport in the possession or under the control of the Customer or Customer Invitees into or onto any part of the Port or any adjacent land or watercourse;	(i)	Packaging (whether unused, empty or substantially empty or unused) immediately after the earlier of (A) the shipment or other removal of Goods; and (B) the Packaging becoming empty or substantially empty (as the case may be); and
(b)	ensure that no Hazardous Materials or substance or matter of which the discharge passage or escape would be contrary to the Environmental Permitting (England and Wales) Regulations 2016 or any substance or material which may cause an obstruction or damage or pollution or contamination to pass or escape into any sewer, drain or watercourse serving the Port or into any river or into the sea or into or onto any part of the Port.	(ii)	any other trade and other waste in accordance with the requirements of Applicable Laws as often as may be necessary or as reasonably directed by ABP.
17.3	If a Pollution Incident should occur as a result of the activities of the Customer or its Representative or other Person whom the Customer invites onto the Port, including the escape of any Goods which might cause damage to the Environment or discharge of any Hazardous Materials or other substance or matter referred to in Condition 17.2 in breach of that Condition 17.2 the Customer shall, upon becoming aware of the Pollution Incident:	18.2	If the Customer fails to remove Packaging and/or trade and other waste from the Port to the reasonable satisfaction of ABP then ABP reserves the right (but shall not be obliged) to remove and dispose of (in any way which ABP sees fit) the Packaging, Containers, trade or other waste itself and the Customer will reimburse ABP in full and on demand for all costs and expenses suffered or incurred by ABP in undertaking such removal. ABP shall not be liable, answerable or accountable to the Customer or any Person interested in such items for so doing or for the proceeds (if any) of any such disposal.
(a)	immediately take all steps necessary to prevent further pollution occurring as a result of the Pollution Incident;	19. Disposal of Perishable Goods &amp; Non Perishable Goods
(b)	notify ABP as soon as reasonably practicable and provide ABP with a copy of any notice that has been given to any Competent Authority in connection with the incident;	19.1	Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, where Goods are on ABP's Port which:
(c)	as soon as reasonably practicable remediate the consequences of the Pollution Incident to the reasonable satisfaction of ABP and any Competent Authority.	(a)	in the opinion of ABP are insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or marked or are otherwise so unidentifiable that ABP cannot determine on what Vessel they should be shipped or to which Person they should be made available for collection; or
(d)	provided that notwithstanding (c) (and without prejudice to any other right or remedy) ABP reserves the right to elect to remediate the consequences of the Pollution Incident itself where it is reasonable in the circumstances for ABP to do so and the Customer shall reimburse ABP in full and on demand for all costs and expenses suffered or incurred by ABP as a result of undertaking such remediation.	(b)	are not taken up immediately upon arrival at the Port or are not accepted by the consignee of the Goods or which ABP has reasonable grounds to consider may have been abandoned;
17.4	The Customer shall indemnify ABP in full and on demand for any Losses incurred or suffered by ABP as a result of the breach of Conditions 17.2 or 17.3 by the Customer or its Representatives or any other Person whom the Customer invites onto the Port.		then in the case of:
17.5	Without prejudice to any other right or remedy of ABP, ABP has the right to require the removal from the Port of any individual in circumstances where ABP reasonably considers that the behaviour or unsafe practices by that individual may present a danger or give rise to a risk to health, safety, security, property or the Environment at the Port.	(i)	Goods which in the opinion of ABP are likely for any reason to perish before collection, shipment or delivery, ABP shall be entitled to sell or otherwise dispose of such Goods in any way it sees fit, without any notice to the Customer or any other Person;
		(ii)	non-perishable Goods of any nature, ABP shall be entitled to sell or otherwise dispose of such Goods in any way it sees fit, after giving 21 days notice in writing of its intention to do so to the Customer (if known) or the publication of such notice in the Port office.
		19.2	In the event that ABP sells or otherwise disposes of Goods pursuant to Condition 19.1, the following provisions shall apply:
		(a)	all Losses suffered or incurred by ABP in connection with the sale or disposal of the Goods referred to in Condition 19.1 shall be payable by the Customer;
		(b)	applicable Charges (including rent) shall continue to accrue in relation to the Goods while they remain on the Port;

- (c) the net proceeds of any sale of Goods shall be payable to the Customer (if known) after the deduction of all amounts owing to ABP under these Conditions; and
- (d) ABP shall have no liability to the Customer or any other Person in respect of the Goods other than the payment of any net proceeds (where applicable) as referred to in Condition 19.2(c).

20. Security & Protection of Goods

20.1. Subject to Condition 24.1, all Goods left or stored at the Port are left or stored at the Customer's sole risk and responsibility including theft, loss or damage to Goods. The Customer is responsible for insuring the Goods as referred to in Condition 6.1(h) whether or not storage of the Goods is provided as part of any Cargo Services.

20.2 The Customer agrees and acknowledges that any general security provided by ABP at the Port does not in any way diminish the Customer's responsibility for the security and safe-keeping of Goods and ABP makes no warranty or representation to the Customer that such security will be adequate or sufficient for the Customer's purpose (including where ABP is providing Cargo Services).

20.2 The Customer will ensure that all of its activities at the Port are undertaken in compliance with the International Ships and Port Facility Security Code (as amended from time to time) (the "ISPS Code") and The Port Security Regulations 2009 and will cooperate with and assist ABP with any security requirements in connection with the Customer's activities at the Port in accordance with the ISPS Code and any requirements of the United Kingdom Department for Transport or any other relevant Competent Authority.

21. Non-ABP Cranes & Overloading

21.1 The Customer must not bring any non-ABP cranes and heavy mobile equipment onto the Port unless the prior written consent of ABP has been obtained. In the event that ABP grants such consent, the Customer shall comply with any conditions of that consent.

21.2. The Customer shall be responsible for ensuring that: (i) the hardstanding areas of the Port are not loaded in excess of their load bearing capacity where ABP has provided this information to the Customer; and (ii) any plant it uses in its operations at the Port is not loaded in excess of its maximum load capacity as specified by the manufacturer of such plant.

22. Force Majeure

22.1 ABP shall not be liable for any breach of obligation to the extent that performance of that obligation is delayed, hindered or prevented by any event, circumstance or incident which is beyond the reasonable control of ABP including:

- (a) act of God, storm, tempest, flood, or other extreme weather or natural disaster, epidemic or pandemic;
- (b) fire (including steps taken for the extinguishment of fire), explosion, smoke, ionising radiation, radioactive contamination, terrorist activity, cyber attack, nuclear, chemical or biological contamination or sonic boom;

- (d) strikes, lockouts, go-slows or other industrial action by any person or anything done in the furtherance of a trade dispute;
- (e) shortage of labour, ABP Plant, machinery, fuel or power, berthing space, covered / uncovered / secure storage space; interruption or failure of utility service; breakdown or mechanical failure of ABP Plant;
- (f) war, revolution, riot or civil commotion, protest or public demonstration;
- (g) directions or orders given directly or indirectly by any Competent Authority acting in its statutory capacity;
- (h) theft, vandalism, damage or Pollution Incident unless proved by the Customer to have been committed by ABP;
- (i) inherent vice of the Goods;
- (j) vermin, insects, fungal attack, rot or corrosion;
- (k) heat or cold including heat within the Goods themselves and unintended exposure to natural or artificial light;
- (l) improper or insufficient packing, marking, documentation or labelling or any erroneous instructions;
- (m) insufficient depth of water at any berth or the approaches to such berth;
- (n) the total or partial failure of the ABP Notify Website (including communication links) or any other electronic or other systems offered at any time by or on behalf of ABP;
- (o) any act of ABP or any ABP Party which, though deliberate, are reasonably necessary for the safety or preservation of persons, the Port and/or any Goods having taken reasonable steps to mitigate where reasonably practicable to do so in the circumstances;
- (p) late receipt of HM Revenue & Customs entries or delivery or landing orders, disputes in respect of documents or declarations made for entry purposes by or on behalf of any person, delay in passing Customs entries or obtaining clearance of any Goods or omission of information from or a mis-statement in any order to ABP relating to the Goods.

23. Exclusion of ABP's Liability

23.1 ABP shall have no liability whatsoever whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation or otherwise in connection with:

- (a) any demurrage costs or other compensation or other Losses suffered as a result of the delay or interruption of any Goods, ABP Plant, Plant, Vessels, Customer Transport, Passengers, Luggage, Passenger Vehicles or Services or for their loss of use or for their not being ready in time;
- (b) any loss of profit;
- (c) any loss of business, contracts, opportunity, market, charter, anticipated savings or depletion of goodwill;
- (d) any indirect or consequential loss or damages, costs, expenses or other claims for consequential compensation or indirect economic loss (howsoever caused);
- (e) the wrongful act, omission and/or neglect or any breach of these Conditions by the Customer or its Representative;
- (e) any Goods delivered to the Port which do not meet the specification stated for those Goods;

- (f) its compliance with any instructions given by the Customer or its Representative or any other Person entitled to give them;
- (g) the lack or insufficiency of marks, labelling or numbers on Goods, incorrect delivery details or any failure by any consignee to accept delivery of Goods where ABP has obtained proof of delivery acknowledging safe receipt of the Goods;
- (h) any information or advice given to or by ABP being inaccurate or incomplete where this incompleteness or inaccuracy cannot have been reasonably known to ABP at the time of the provision of the advice or information;
- (i) any failure or inability of any master or owner of the Vessel, operator of Customer Transport or any other Persons (other than ABP) to comply with their obligations under Applicable Laws or with the directions or orders of the Harbour Master or with any ABP Regulations;
- (j) improper, insufficient, indistinct or erroneous packaging, marking or addressing of Luggage;
- (k) any damage to or loss of a Passenger Vehicle:
- (i) where the damage or loss occurs after the Passenger Vehicle has crossed a Vessel's loading ramp to embark the Vessel or before the Passenger Vehicle has left the Vessel's loading ramp to disembark the Vessel;
- (ii) resulting from the malfunction or disrepair of any apparatus or equipment belonging to the Vessel or the Vessel not being in the condition specified at Condition 6;
- (vii) in the case of the Affected Item being Customer Transport, £5,000 per Customer Transport;
- (b) in the case of damage or loss to a Vessel (including any Goods on-board the Vessel) the reasonable cost of repair of the affected part of the Vessel and any affected Goods, up to a limit of:
- (i) £250,000 where the GRT of the Vessel is up to 300;
- (ii) £750,000 where the GRT of the Vessel is between 301 and 2000;
- (iii) £2,500,000 where the GRT of the Vessel is between 2001 and 10,000;
- (iv) £5,000,000 where the GRT of the Vessel is between 10,001 and 50,000;
- (v) £10,000,000 where the GRT of the Vessel is over 50,000;
- (c) in relation to the hire or use of any ABP Plant, the amount of the Charges paid for the hire of the relevant ABP Plant in relation to the particular operation to which the hire or use of ABP Plant relates;
- (d) except for the liability referred to in Condition 24.2(b) ABP's aggregate liability in respect of any one event or series of related events shall not exceed the amount of the Charges paid to ABP in relation to the particular Vessel or other operation to which the event or series of related events relates;
- (e) nothing in these Conditions shall prejudice ABP's right to rely on any applicable statutory provision providing for limitation and/or exclusion of liability; and
- (f) without prejudice to the generality of Condition 24.2(e), the provisions of the Pilotage Act 1987 shall apply to any claim in connection with any pilot or pilotage services provided;
- 24.3 Nothing in these Conditions excludes or limits the liability of ABP for death or personal injury caused by its negligence or for fraudulent misrepresentation or for any other matter which it would be unlawful to exclude or limit ABP's liability. Nothing in Condition 24.2(b) excludes or limits the liability of ABP if it is proved that the loss resulted from ABP's personal act or omission, committed with the intent to cause such loss, or recklessly and with knowledge that such loss would probably result.
- 24.4 The following additional terms shall apply where Passenger Services are being provided:
- (a) ABP shall not have any liability for any loss or damage or delay to any item of Luggage which is not in ABP's custody at the time such loss, damage or delay occurs. Luggage shall be deemed to be in the custody of ABP when it is unaccompanied by an embarking or disembarking Passenger from the moment the Luggage:
- (i) passes beyond the check-in desk at the terminal after a Passenger has checked in until the moment the Luggage passes onto the Vessel's loading ramps or otherwise passes onto the Vessel;
- (ii) leaves the Vessel's loading ramp or otherwise leaves the Vessel until the moment the Luggage is removed by the Passenger from the baggage carousels in the terminal;
- 24. Limitation of ABP's Liability
- 24.1 Unless otherwise stated in these Conditions, ABP shall be liable for loss or misdelivery of, or damage to Goods, Plant, Vessels, Customer Transport, Luggage or Passenger Vehicles (or any part of them) to the extent that the Customer proves the loss, misdelivery or damage has been caused by the negligence of ABP or by a breach of ABP's obligations in relation to the provision of any Services, in which case ABP's liability will be limited in accordance with this Condition 24.
- 24.2 ABP's total liability in contract, tort (including negligence) or for breach of statutory duty, misrepresentation or otherwise, arising in connection with the use of the Port, the provision of any Services and/or the performance or contemplated performance of these Conditions will be limited in accordance with the provisions set out below:
- (a) in the case of loss, misdelivery or damage to Goods ("Affected Item") the amount which is the lesser of:
- (i) the cost of the part of the Affected Item which is affected;
- (ii) the market value of the Affected Item at the time of the loss, misdelivery or damage;
- (iii) the reasonable cost of repairing the Affected Item (if practicable);
- (iv) £1,300 per metric tonne of the gross weight of the Affected Item;
- (v) in the case of the Affected Item being a Container, £2,000 per Container or £5,000 per Container if it is a refrigerated Container;
- (vi) in the case of the Affected Item being Packaging or Plant (excluding Containers) £3,000 per item of Packaging or Plant;

- (b) where ABP is liable for damage or loss as set out in Condition 24.1, ABP's total liability arising in connection with any loss or damage:
- (i) to Luggage shall in no case be more than £2,000 per Passenger;
  - (ii) to a Passenger Vehicle (including any Luggage in or on the Passenger Vehicle) shall in no case be more than £12,000 per Passenger.
- 25. Liability - Time Bar for Claims
- 25.1 It is a condition precedent to the liability of ABP in relation to Goods under Condition 24 that ABP be notified in writing:
- (a) in the case of damage, deficiency or partial losses, within 7 days of the earlier of the date on which:
    - (i) the Goods are either delivered to the Customer or collected from the Port;
    - (ii) the Customer or its representative has knowledge of the damage, deficiency or partial losses in relation to the Goods;
  - (b) Notwithstanding Condition 25.1(a), ABP shall in any event be discharged of all liability whatsoever and howsoever arising in respect of any claim under or in connection with these Conditions unless court proceedings are issued and written notice of the proceedings are given to ABP within 12 months of the date of the event or occurrence alleged to give rise to a cause of action against ABP.
2. It is a condition precedent to the liability of ABP in relation to any Luggage or Passenger Vehicle under Condition 24 that ABP be notified in writing of any damage or loss of Luggage or to a Passenger Vehicle prior to the Passenger leaving the Port to enable ABP to inspect any damage or investigate any loss.
3. It is a condition precedent to the liability of ABP in relation to any Vessel under Condition 24 that ABP be notified in writing of any damage or loss to the Vessel prior to the Vessel leaving the Port to enable ABP to inspect any damage or investigate any loss.
- 26. Liability Limits available to Third Parties
- By delivering the Goods to ABP the Customer shall be deemed to confer severally upon ABP and any ABP Party, the benefit of all warranties, representations, limitations and exclusions or of exemptions from liability, indemnities, defences, amenities and rights provided under these Conditions for the benefit of ABP upon any such Person providing any Services in relation to the Goods.
- 27. Disapplication of Additional Small Ship Limit
- Paragraph 5 of part 2 of Schedule 7 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995 shall not apply in respect of any claim ABP may have in relation to a Vessel using the Port.
- 28. Bribery / Corruption & Modern Slavery
- 28.1 ABP and the Customer shall not, and shall each procure that its Representatives shall not, engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under any applicable:
- (a) anti-bribery and/or anti-corruption laws, regulations and codes, including the Bribery Act 2010;
  - (b) anti-slavery and human trafficking laws, regulations and codes, including the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- 28.2 ABP and the Customer shall each:
- (a) have in place adequate procedures designed to prevent any Person working for or engaged by ABP or the Customer (as the case may be) or any third party in any way connected to these Conditions and the Customer's use of the Port, from engaging in any activity, practice or conduct which would infringe any anti-bribery and/or anti-corruption laws, regulations and codes including ABP's anti-corruption and anti-bribery policy which is available on ABP's website <http://www.abports.co.uk>;
  - (b) not engage in any activity, practice or conduct that would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 4, of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 if such activity, practice or conduct were carried out in the UK.
- 27.3 Without prejudice to the generality of the obligations set out in this Condition 27 the Customer must promptly report to ABP:
- (a) any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind which it receives in connection with the use of the Port by the Customer or performance of any obligations under these Conditions or any other agreement with ABP;
  - (b) any actual or suspected slavery or human trafficking in a supply chain which has a connection with the use of the Port by the Customer, these Conditions or any other agreement with ABP.
- 29. Data Protection
- 29.1 Without prejudice to the generality of Condition 17.1(a), in relation to the Customer's use of or activities at the Port the Customer shall at all times comply with all Applicable Laws and ABP Regulations relating to the security, confidentiality, protection or privacy of personal data.
- 29.2 The Customer acknowledges that surveillance systems such as CCTV, Automatic Number Plate Recognition (ANPR) and body worn camera systems may be used at the Port (including for the purposes of safety and security). The Customer further acknowledges that the information processed by such systems may include personal data about the Customer, Customer Invitees, Passengers and other Persons (including any Representative). This information may be shared by ABP with other Persons (including the data subjects themselves, employees, agents or services providers of ABP, police forces, security organisations and Persons making an enquiry) and it may be used in any form of proceedings.
- 29.3 The Customer warrants and agrees that it will make its Customer Invitees, Representatives, Passengers and any other applicable Persons aware that ABP may process personal data relating to data subjects who may enter or use the Port (including in relation to the use of any surveillance systems) and as further described in ABP's privacy notice (as amended from time to time), which can be accessed at http://www.abports.co.uk/Privacy\_Notice/
- 29.4 Unless the context otherwise requires, the terms "process", "personal data" and "data subject" used in this Condition 29 shall be interpreted and construed by reference to any Applicable Laws relating to the security, confidentiality, protection or privacy of personal data.

- 30. Radio
- The Customer shall ensure that any radio equipment used at the Port is licensed and operated in accordance with Applicable Laws.
- 31 Governing Law and Jurisdiction
- These Conditions (and any dispute or claim relating to them, their enforceability or its termination) and any legal relationship between ABP and the Customer shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with English law, and the Customer submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the High Court of Justice in England but ABP may enforce any contract between ABP and the Customer in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- 32. Bylaws, Statutory Powers & Duties
- 32.1 The rights and powers of ABP under these Conditions are in addition to and not in substitution for the rights and powers of ABP conferred by their current Bye-Laws.
- 32.2 Nothing in these Conditions shall restrict prejudice or affect ABP's powers and duties in the exercise of its functions as the statutory harbour authority for the Port or as the competent harbour authority for elsewhere.
- 33. Notices
- Any notice required to be given under these Conditions shall unless otherwise specified or agreed be sufficiently given if sent by registered or recorded delivery post or left at the principal or registered office for the time being of the party to be served. Any such notice shall be deemed to be served at the time the same is handed to or left at the address of the party to be served and if served by post on the third day (not being a Sunday or public holiday) following the day of posting.
- 34. Confidentiality
- 34.1 ABP and the Customer will keep and procure to be kept secret and confidential all confidential information belonging to the other party disclosed or obtained as a result of the relationship of the parties under these Conditions and will not use nor disclose the same save: (a) for the purposes of the proper performance of these Conditions; (b) with the prior written consent of the other party or of a party's professional advisors or; (c) as may be required in connection with any financing arrangements.
- 34.2 Where a party discloses confidential information to its employees, consultants, sub-contractors, professional advisors or agents pursuant to Condition 34.1(a), (b) or (c), such disclosure shall be subject to obligations equivalent to those set out in this Condition 34 and the disclosing party will use its best endeavours to procure that any such employee, consultant, sub-contractor, professional advisor or agent complies with such obligations. Each party will be responsible to the other party in respect of any disclosure or use of any such confidential information by a person to whom disclosure is made.
- 34.3 The obligation of confidentiality under Condition 34.1 will not apply to any confidential information which: (a) is in or enters (otherwise than as a result of an unlawful disclosure by the party receiving such information), the public domain; (b) the party receiving such information can demonstrate was already lawfully in its possession at the time of disclosure; (c) is disclosed to the party receiving such information by a third party otherwise than in breach of any confidentiality obligation owed to the party whose confidential information it is; or (d) is required to be disclosed pursuant to any Applicable Law, Court or arbitral order or by any supervisory or regulatory body to whose rules a party is subject or with whose rules it is necessary for that party to comply.
- 35. General
- 35.1 If any provision of these Conditions is or becomes invalid or unenforceable, in whole or in part, in any jurisdiction, the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of these Conditions and its validity and enforceability in any other jurisdiction shall not be affected.
- 35.2 A waiver of any right or remedy is only effective if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default. A delay or failure to exercise, or the single or partial exercise of, any right or remedy shall not: (a) waive that or any other right or remedy; or (b) prevent or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.
- 35.3 These Conditions together with the Port Tariff are generally issued on an annual basis to take effect on 1 January in each year. However, ABP reserves the right to amend the ABP Standard Terms and Conditions of Trade at any time by publishing the Conditions on ABP's website (www.abports.co.uk).
- 35.4 Except as otherwise provided in these Conditions, a person who is not a party has no right to enforce any term of this agreement under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
